

Please do not weaken the NJ law assuring citizens of the ability not to be harassed by unwanted and unwelcome telephone calls soliciting our money for various reasons.

If we want to contact a business that we have done business with in the past, I'm sure we can find their number in the phone book.

Please fulfill your charter and protect the common citizen and consumer and not the vested interests of businesses.